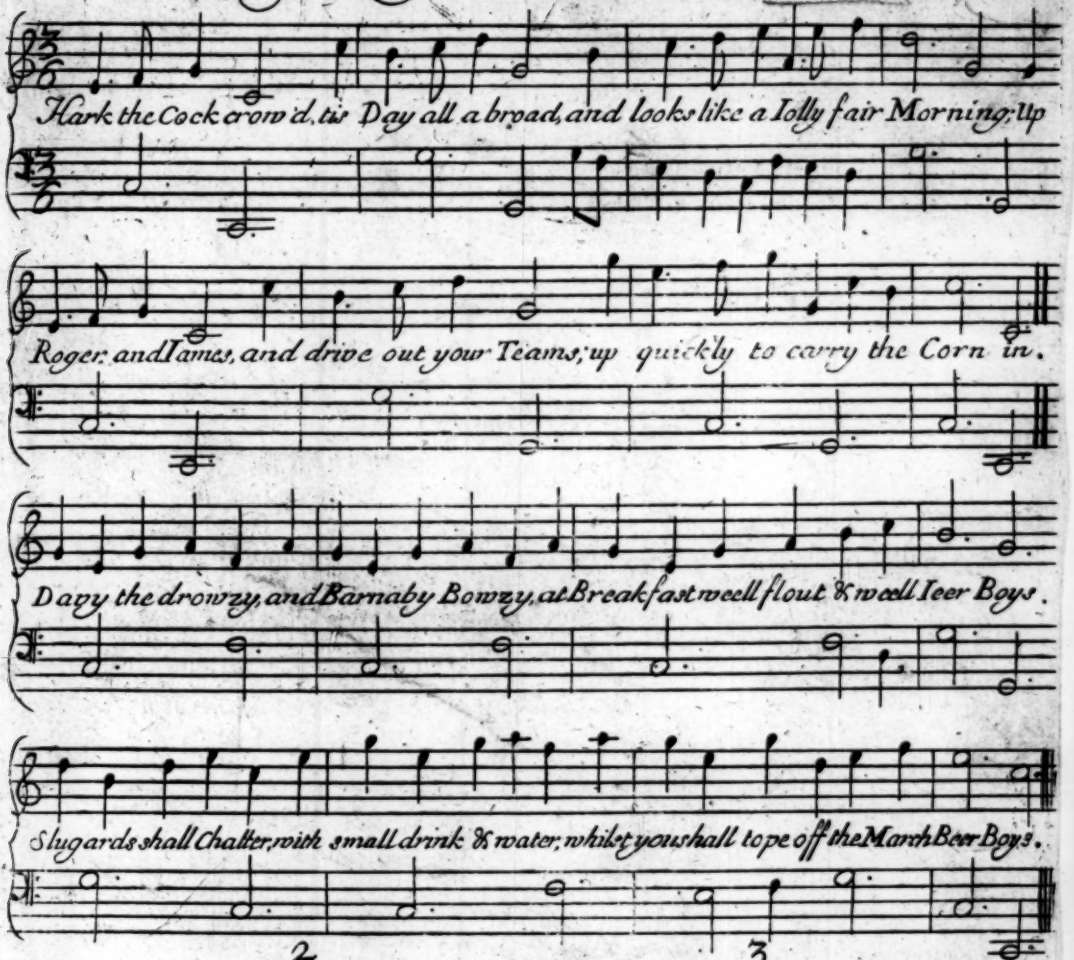
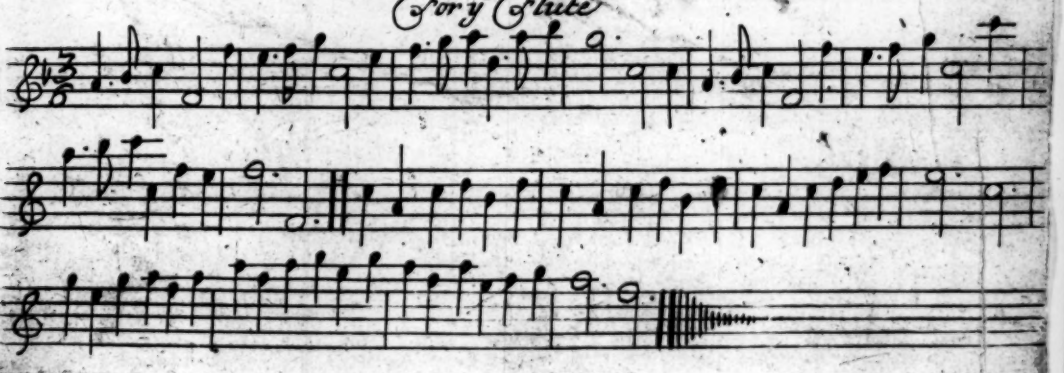
The Country Farmer,
A Song set by Mr. Jeremiah Clark.



2

Lasses that Snore, for Shame give it o'er
Mouth open, the Flyes will be blowing.
To get us strut Hum, when Christmass is come,
Away where the Barley is Mowing.
In your Smock sleeves too, go bind up y^e^ Sheaves
With nimble young Rowland & Harry;
Then when Works over, at Night give each Lover
A Hug and a Buss in the Dairy.

3

Two for y^e^ Mow, and two for y^e^ Plough.
Is then the next Labour coms after.
Im sure I hir'd four, but if you want more,
Ill send you my Wife & my Daughter.
Roger y^e^ trusty, tell Rachel y^e^ lusty,
The Barn's a rare place to Steal Garters;
Twixt her & you then, contrive up y^e^ Mow then,
And take it at Night for your Quarters.


For y^e^ Flute
